

No Spared Feelings

written by

Robert Labinski

robert.labinski@spartans.ut.edu

FADE IN

INT. JEWELRY STORE - DAY

The store is very cramped and cluttered with boxes, while having no one inside. ANTONIO (50) is sitting at the front desk, closely examining a diamond he has in his hand. He looks up as we hear the door open and the doorbell CHIMES.

DANNY (22) skinny guy with cheap ripped up clothes walks up to ANTONIO at the front desk.

ANTONIO

Hey, there's my boy! I got something for you to do.

DANNY

(Reluctantly)

Today?

ANTONIO

Don't worry, the cops are occupied. Just go down the street and wait for a man in a suit. You give him the bag and he gives you money. Bring that back to me and well talk your cut.

DANNY then turns and looks out the window and pauses for a moment. He turns back slowly and just nods his head. DANNY takes a brown paper bag and walks out.

EXT. ALLEYWAY NEXT TO BAR - DAY

The day is bright and the sun is shining on the alleyway. DANNY has his back leaning up against the alleyway wall hiding the brown bag with his left hand so people walking to his right won't notice it. Numerous people are walking past. Police SIRENS are heard in the distance and grow louder and louder. DANNY seems startled and walks further down the alleyway and places the bag in a dumpster. He walks away while looking around to see if someone saw him.

EXT. ALLEYWAY NEXT TO BAR - DAY

The sky is dark and gloomy while rain is drizzling down. DANNY comes back to the dumpster and looks inside to see it's completely empty. He panics and steps away then begins checking every box, under each trashcan lid, and behind the dumpster. He begins kicking the dumpster and inaudibly screaming.

EXT. TOMMY'S FAMILY'S HOUSE - DAY

DANNY knocks on the door, and his brother Tommy (17) answers. Tommy looks suprised to see Danny, but welcomes him in.

INT. TOMMY'S FAMILY'S HOUSE - DAY

TOMMY

What do you need now?

DANNY

It's serious this time. Long story short I need a lot of money and fast.

TOMMY

You expect me to have cash stored just for you. The only money I have is from Mom, and it's for my lunch.

DANNY

I know how we can get some quick money, but it involves a bank.

TOMMY

(While Laughing)

Yea clearly you're on something. - What do you wanna do, rob a bank?

DANNY

(Pleading)

This is serious. What do you think is gonna happen to me if they hear I don't have the cash - You have to trust me, I've done this before.

DANNY desperately looks at TOMMY and puts his hands together praying that Tommy agrees, and TOMMY slowly looks down for a minute the lets out a sigh.

INT. VAN - NIGHT

DANNY and TOMMY are seated in the front and are looking at a map. Danny checks the time on his phone, then signals as he and Tommy put on their clown masks. Danny cocks his gun.

INT. BANK - NIGHT

DANNY and TOMMY come busting through the door and Danny is shouting at the customers. Tommy pulls down the blinds on the windows and begins peeking out. Danny storms up to the woman at the front.

DANNY
(calmly)
Whatever money you have in the back put in this bag.

The bank teller takes the bag and rushes off to the back. She begins taking too long as minutes past, and DANNY starts banging on the glass and looking at each of the customers. The woman comes back, gives Danny the bag, and DANNY and TOMMY run out the front door.

EXT. OUTSIDE BANK - NIGHT

DANNY
(Speaking fast)
New Plan! Go down the street, I'll pick you up. This way you won't be with me if they catch up to me.

EXT. STREET CORNER-NIGHT

TOMMY is standing next to a light pole without his mask. His face glued to the right waiting for Danny. His face turns as we see the blue and red lights shine on his nervous face.

INT. COP CAR - NIGHT

We close in on TOMMY sobbing with his hands cuffed and staring at the ground as he is behind bars in the cop car.

INT. JEWELRY STORE - NIGHT

DANNY is giving the bag of cash over to ANTONIO, who is cheerfully smiling at DANNY. Antonio pulls the money out, licks his fingers and starts counting. We close in on Danny slouching over with a sorrowful and melancholy look.

FADE OUT